

Junior Business Consultant

The position will operate in the Business Consulting Area. In this area, the candidate will have a junior consultant role for Credit Solution Market with more attention to Risk management Solutions. Consulting projects are about the implementation of analysis and credit evaluation strategies or policies, commercial planning and marketing activities in banks, financial institutions and businesses are managed.

The successful candidate will:

- Be involved in internal and external consulting projects.
- Be involved in all the consulting activities on usage and implementation of products and services related the credit sector.
- Deal with specific market analysis and research on new business opportunities.

The successful candidate must:

- Have a degree in Management Engineer, Economics or Statistics
- Prove that the average of the university exams is higher than 25 or that the graduation mark is higher or equal to 105
- Show proven proficiency in English

A study period abroad will be considered a plus.

The ideal candidate will be highly motivated, target-oriented, able to work in a team and to have analytical approach.